Assessment of EURoma Network’s work and future cooperation among Member States

Main outcomes

EURoma Network

Structural Funds: Investing in Roma
Network objectives, activities and results

- Pertinence of EURoma

  - Pie chart showing the percentage of respondents indicating:
    - Very necessary: 0%
    - Necessary: 56%
    - Not really necessary/Not necessary at all: 44%

- Achievement of EURoma objective: promoting a more efficient use of SF for Roma

  - Pie chart showing the percentage of respondents indicating:
    - Very much: 22%
    - Much: 56%
    - Not much: 22%
• Main working lines:
  • Regular meetings (most valued)

• Information and analysis on relevant developments on the EU agenda (least valued)
● Impact and contributions of EURoma

- To foster mutual learning and coordination between members (most valued)

- To provide guidelines and orientations in the design and approach of the projects, the criteria for calls for proposals, the implementation process, the partnerships, etc (least valued)
Network objectives, activities and results

- Members participation has had a trigger effect and the knowledge fed into the work of the institutions they represent.

- Their participation indirectly benefited other third party.

- EURoma learning taken into consideration in the planning process of the 2014-2020 ESIF in your country.
Network composition and functioning

- The current composition of the Network is adequate

  - Yes: 67%
  - No: 33%

- The working model is useful and adequate

  - Yes: 89%
  - No: 11%
Network composition and functioning

• The work carried out by the Technical Secretariat

  • Most valued: Elaboration of documents

  • Least valued: Influencing stakeholders, relationship with other stakeholders or experts, other networks, etc.
The future of the Network and potential challenges

- Possibility of current members of EURoma to join the Network in the future
  - Foreseen the allocation of a specific budget for transnational cooperation in the 2014-2020 programming period
• Opening the Network to other stakeholders/countries

• Increase EURoma impact at national level
www.euromanet.eu